OSRAM

WE ARE LEDVANCE

Light and the future of lighting technology are at the heart of our company. The LED in our name refers to the most important lighting technology for today and tomorrow – and VANCE, from “advance”, stands for our mission: “Advancing Light”. Our name therefore expresses the values of our company. For us, “Advancing Light” is more than a promise – it is an attitude. LEDVANCE is a world leader in innovative lighting products as well as intelligent and connected lighting solutions (Smart Home). The company is an offspring of OSRAM, combining traditional general illumination with modern, ground-breaking lighting technologies.

LEDVANCE is built on trusted, long-standing customer relationships and a powerful distribution network offering excellent reach and market access around the globe. Based on our in-depth understanding of the general illumination market, trending technologies and changing needs, we support the specific and individual demands of both direct and indirect customers. The company employs about 9,000 people, is active in more than 120 countries and generated revenue of around €2 billion in the 2014/15 fiscal year. At all of its locations around the world, LEDVANCE is committed to acting responsibly towards its customers, employees, business partners, society and the environment.

if you want to write history you also need to have a history: OSRAM stands for know-how stretching back more than 100 years.

- Experienced OSRAM experts and familiar contacts - the same team as before is now working under the new name of LEDVANCE.
- First-class branded products - you can still rely on quality and innovation at an outstanding price performance ratio.

Go with LEDVANCE into a bright future - so you always stay on the ball.

- The latest trends are always covered - LEDVANCE is constantly developing its portfolio.
- Customer proximity - for every innovation the focus is always on the needs and wishes of users.
- Optimized organization - the new corporate structure enables us to act faster, be more dynamic and above all be more in tune with the market.
- A tried and tested partnership - continue to benefit from a worldwide presence and global customer programs, first-class customer service, comprehensive product guarantees and effective sales and marketing support.
