

A warm, intimate indoor scene featuring three people at a dining table. A man in a dark shirt is leaning over the table, possibly serving or preparing food. Two women are seated at the table, looking towards him with interest. The table is set with plates, glasses, and a small teapot. In the background, a large, multi-tiered shelving unit is visible, and a modern chandelier with multiple glass spheres hangs from the ceiling, casting a soft, warm glow over the scene.
